

Erasmus+

FOREST
Forestry Operators
Reflecting on Equalising. Skills and Training

February 11, 2020 - Seminar open

"STATE OF THE ART IN FORESTRY TRAINING IN ITALY AND IN EUROPE"

At the start of the "FOREST- Forestry Operators - Reflecting on Equalising" project. Skills and Training ", supported by the ERASMUS + Program. Veneto Agricoltura, the project leader, proposes a seminar that aims to offer an overview of forest training in Italy and in Europe. The seminar is aimed at forestry operators interested in alpine areas (technicians, forestry operators and entrepreneurs, schools for forestry education, forestry instructors, forestry training bodies and their associations). The seminar will be held in English with consecutive Italian-English translation for the speeches of the Italian speakers and operators.

PROGRAM

9:00 am - Greeting address and presentation of the seminar

9:10 - Forest training in each partner country

Brief presentation by the project partners:

CROATIA (Croatian Wood Cluster)

SLOVENIA (Novo mesto training center)

ROMANIA (National Association of Rural Women)

AUSTRIA (Pichl Forest Training Center, Styria)

10:00 - State of the art in the Veneto region

By Veneto Agriculture and the Veneto Region

11:20 am - Forest Training in Italy and the FOR.Italy National Project

Valerio Motta Fre, Forestry Directorate of the Regione Piemonte

Pierpaolo Brenta, Institute for the Protection of Wood and the Environment - IPLA

13:00 - Discussion and conclusions

Project n° 2019-1-IT01_KA202-007823